

Why not take a short break and get the most out of the National Forest Walking Festival?

Or make a return trip - there is so much to see and do!

Where to Stay

A copy of the 2009 Visitor Guide, containing special offer discount vouchers, can be obtained from Swadlincote Tourist Information Centre, Sharpe's Pottery Museum, West Street, Swadlincote, Derbyshire DE11 9DG or downloaded from www.visitnationalforest.co.uk

Whether you are looking for a farmhouse B&B, a town centre hotel, a campsite or a country inn, a Youth Hostel or timber lodge, The National Forest has accommodation to suit every taste and budget.

Our Tourist Information Centres can help you find and book the perfect accommodation for you.

Contact Swadlincote Tourist Information Centre on 01283 222848 or www.visitnationalforest.co.uk for more information about visiting and staying in The National Forest.

Travelling to the Festival

Why not leave the car at home and come by train or bus.

- For information on train times call National Rail Enquiries on 08457 484950.
